Joanna Lickel

WECCP Early Childhood Outreach Specialist NW Region Culturally Responsive Practices (Emphasis: Tribal Nations)*

Joanna earned a Bachelor's degree in Community Health Education from the University of Wisconsin - La Crosse and completed an internship on the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. She is passionate about prevention education and early intervention and loves to see families and children empowered to achieve success across all areas of development. She worked for seven years as a home visitor with UW-Extension's Healthy Beginnings Program, teaching child development, facilitating parent-child interaction, conducting screenings, and providing referrals to community resources. She also worked for nearly five years in an administrative support role for the Wisconsin Nutrition Education Program in Portage County. She and her husband have three sons and live in Stevens Point on a small hobby farm.

Lana Edwards

*WECCP Early Childhood Outreach Specialist Southern Region

Homelessness / Child Find

Lana's educational background is in Speech and Language Pathology. She earned her Bachelor's degree from UW-Whitewater, followed by her Master's degree from UW-Stevens Point. Prior to joining the team, Lana spent 12 years working as an Early Interventionist with the Portage Project Birth-3 Program. She is passionate in her belief that children do best when their families, teachers, schools, and communities are well supported and well connected. Lana and her husband make their home near Portage with their three children. Her spare time is often spent at her daughters' softball games. She also loves to camp, boat, snowmobile, and is always on a mission to "see new things."
