

Reproduction of Materials

WI Model Early Learning Standards Related Materials:

The Wisconsin Model Early Learning Standards are a collaborative effort between the Wisconsin Departments of Children & Families (DCF), Public Instruction (DPI) and Health Services (DHS). The work is overseen by a cross-department steering committee and leadership team. The WI Model Early Learning Standards materials may be used to supplement cross-sector professional development.

Suggested Reference:

Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction. (2017). Wisconsin model early learning standards (5th ed.). Madison, WI: WI Department of Public Instruction.

WI Model Early Learning Standards Training Materials:

The Wisconsin Model Early Learning Standards Training Materials were specifically designed to be implemented to promote a high level of fidelity among trainers. Training Materials are intended to be used only by individuals who have completed the Approved Trainers process and are Approved Trainers of the WI Model Early Learning Standards.